Nick Barnard

Bsc (Hons) MSc (Leicester)

Short Biography :

Nick was born in Cornwall in 1951 and initially trained as a communications engineer with BT.

His Police career spanned 1976 to 2006, commencing in Thames Valley Police, transferring to Norfolk Constabulary, culminating with Central Service at the National Policing Improvement Agency in London as a Superintendent.

In 2003 he was appointed as the National Delivery Manager for the NSPIS Custody and Case Preparation at the NPIA.

Since forming BBW Associates in 2006, Nick has collaborated with High Street Retailers including Marks and Spencer and also within the public sector with HMIC, Ministry of Justice and the Home Office.

Working closely with clients, he has reviewed organisations, business processes and associated performance and delivered change to match benefits requirement on a National scale. His experience across Sectors has provided him with an extensive network and understanding of the Criminal Justice System.
